Capital Southwest Corporation Announces New Vice Presidents

DALLAS, June 11, 2010 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Capital Southwest Corporation (Nasdaq:CSWC) is pleased to announce that it has added two new Vice Presidents, Marquez Bela and Glenn Neblett, effective May 2010.

Mr. Bela joins Capital Southwest after having served in a variety of senior private equity and investment banking roles, most recently as Managing Member of Covalent Capital, a Dallas-based private equity firm focusing on early stage to mid-size companies. Prior to Covalent Capital, he was with SKM Growth Investors, an affiliate of Saunders Karp and Megrue, a $1.5 billion equity fund. Marquez earned a BBA degree in Finance in the Business Honors Program and a BA in the Plan II Honors Program from the University of Texas. Mr. Bela is focused on seeking fitting acquisitions for our wholly owned portfolio companies, as well as serving as a director on the boards of several portfolio companies.

Mr. Neblett comes to Capital Southwest from Houlihan Lokey, where he served for 10 years in the corporate finance and financial sponsors groups advising clients in mergers and acquisitions, private placements and restructurings. Glenn holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from Baylor University, and is a Chartered Financial Analyst and Certified Public Accountant. Mr. Neblett is concentrating on direct investment opportunities, and will serve as a director on the boards of multiple portfolio companies.

Gary Martin, Chairman and CEO of Capital Southwest Corporation, commented, "I am excited to see Capital Southwest's continued increase in outstanding personnel. The additions of Marquez and Glenn with their experience in the acquisitions arena, coupled with their financial backgrounds, will be tremendous assets to our strong and diverse investment team. They will be instrumental in continuing our positive results that our Company and its shareholders have come to expect."
